CONGRESSMAN LEE ZELDIN ENDORSES ANDREW GARBARINO FOR 2ND CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT RUN

Congressman Lee Zeldin (R, NY-1) today announced his endorsement of Assemblyman Andrew Garbarino to succeed Congressman Peter King (R, NY-2) as the Representative for New York's Second Congressional District. Congressman Zeldin stated, "It is absolutely critical that we keep the 2nd Congressional District represented by a Republican who will represent the values of the hard-working middle-class voters of Long Island. My good friend, Andrew Garbarino, is the exceptional, experienced leader needed to keep this district represented by someone who shares and will fight for the values of these amazing constituents."

Zeldin continued, "As the Democratic Party embraces socialism more than ever before in Albany and Washington, the choice for voters this November is clear. Our economy and public safety are being put at risk. In Albany, Democrats have passed bail reform to let criminals back on the street, and have given driver's licenses to illegal immigrants. In DC, Democrats have wasted opportunities for real progress to instead pursue a corrupt, rushed, rigged impeachment of the President."

Garbarino responded to the endorsement by saying, "This means so much to me personally and to my campaign to have Lee's support. Lee has a well-deserved reputation as a tireless campaigner and a tireless fighter for the people he represents. I will do my very best to emulate him on both counts."
